THE COURTS.

A Full Day Before Judge Smith—County Court Jurors.

The argument in the attachment case of E. Z. Taylor vs. T. S. Hoskins, was heard by the judge and jury this forenoon, when the case was submitted. The property in controversy is the old Mexican Palace soap outfit that was managed for a time by Alexander & Co.

The court took a recess at noon to receive the verdict of the jury in the above case.

ADJOURNMENT.

Judge Smith will adjourn court to-day until Monday next at 10 a. m., when the criminal cases on the docket will receive attention. This is the ninth day of the term. It looks now as if the term will be unusually short.

CRIMINAL DOCKET.

W. F. Sample et al. vs. F. A. and Ella Sample foreclosure; report of sale approved.

Killa Richardson vs. Wm. L. Duly et al., petition and docket; report of commissioners approved and docket entered.

COMMON LAW DOCKET.

Frederick J. Webb et al. vs. W. H. Hall, assumpsit; leave to file two additional counts.

O. A. Brown et al. vs. C. W. A. Sites, et al., Siles and J. H. Kahlich; foreclosure; referred to Master.

PEOPLE'S DOCKET.

People vs. Samuel Smith, carrying deadly weapon; defendant pled guilty to first count, fined $25 and costs and ordered to stand committed until fine is paid.

COUNT JURYMEN.

Sheriff Maury is busy summoning jurymen for the February term of the county court. The venire includes Eneas Black, Philip Taylor, S. W. Hatcher, Wm. Walker, W. T. Cooper, C. C. Kin-ser, D. E. May, W. H. Gibson, George Dalvidson, J. T. Turner, O. S. Jones, George Dennis, J. C. Jacobs, J. N. Hill, Henry Albrecht, John Beall, J. M. Byrle, Henry Myers, Lewis Kiser, A. O. Hoover, Lan-myer, J. A. Taylor, James McCreary, C. H. Hester, A. Bradley, W. C. Austin, A. H. Eymann, W. H. Starr, B. B. Tuttle, W. S. Grubbs.

A LECTURE.

Judge Nelson in disposing of the poker players yesterday gave Ed. Hershey a lecture, and asked him if he didn't think it much better all round for him to give up his evil ways and companions and stay at home with his mother to be a comfort to her and the pride of her heart. Ed. tactfully answered "yes," and then the court fined him $400 and costs. He couldn't pay and went to jail.

Spectacular.

"Lost in London," with spectacular and fairy dance effects, will be the attraction at the opera house to-morrow night. The company is a large one and carries a fine lot of special scenery.

The Illinois Central Railroad company has declared the usual semi-annual dividend of 8 1/2 per cent, payable March 1, upon the entire capital of $40,000,000.

East Park Boulevards.

Inquiry among real estate agents, material men and builders establish the fact that this promises to be the greatest building year in the history of Decatur. So constant is the inquiry for lots that Mr. Cloyce has at last consented to place his elegant addition on the market. In no part of the city will there be such active building. The opening of such a system of broad, beautifully shaded avenues is a boon in itself. Not satisfied with what is already accomplished, Mr. Cloyce offers to donate a fine Free stone sidewalk on all sales by April 1st. The streets are brought to the city grade, so that the improvements are permanent. With free shade and free walks lining the Boulevards, this will be the most attractive residence part of our city.

CORRIGOR HARDY has received a telegram to the effect that he will not have to go to Albany, N. Y., to testify against Dr. R. N. Mills, on trial for swindling the government out of $14-000 by pension fraud. Joe S. Howes is there. He probably gave the prosecution all the information desired as to Dr.
Mills' record in Decatur.

W. H. SIMMONS, special agent for the National Bureau of Labor Statistics, has about completed his work of ascertaining the total number of divers granted in Mason county since 1867. He estimates the number at 380. The facts in all counties are being gathered for use at Washington.

A Rare Celebration.

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs.
David Logan was joyously celebrated Wednesday at their home, five miles east of Decatur. Twelve children were born to the couple, ten of whom are living—Hugh Logan, Mrs. Martha Leach, Mrs.
M. Eichinger and Lafayette Logan, all of this city; James Logan, J. W. Logan, George M. Logan and Sarah J. Logan, all of Long Creek; Oliver T. Logan, of Wheatland; and Rice Logan, of Colorado.
The children, 14 grandchildren and a large number of great-grandchildren were present. A beautiful dinner was served, and the aged couple received numerous gifts—Mr. L. a gold-headed cane, and Mrs. L. a pair of gold-rimmed spectacles.

The local gamblers say if prosecutions are pushed in the county court as they were yesterday there will be 150 men in the county jail before the "robins nest again." Let them quit gambling, and they'll have no cause to kick.

ward, Mrs. K. Harwood; second ward, Mrs. J. A. Barnes; third ward, Mrs. Geo.
R. Steele; fourth ward, Mrs. H. C. Johns; fifth ward, Mrs. A. C. Waterhouse.

The Central Council will elect a secretary at a future meeting.

The League Players.

The following is given out as the correct list to date of ball players engaged to play in the Central Inter-State League:

Davitt—L. O. Hunt, manager; Eastport, Baltimore, Md.; Schuler, manager; Lutz, White, Lincoln.

Decatur—N. D. Flyter, manager; Hoffman, Harrington, Connolly, Smith, Duchen, Beaton, Perrin, E. F. Flynn, manager.

Springfield—F. Fisher, manager; Bates, Rockford, W. H. Allen, manager; Lowe, Tebo, Brockton, Mass.; Bessie, Shores, O'Fallon, Walt, Frisco, Elgin, St. Louis.

Bloomington—E. A. Wacker, manager; Ta-bell, Crocker, Janczy, Poling, Briggs, McCall, Macleod.

Dubuque—C. E. Quid, manager; McQuade, Gundlach, Dunne, Turner, Glenahol, Bishop, Schneider, Lutz, Kees, Stort, Stevens.

Of course several of the lists are incomplete, because other men are yet to be secured.

That Postoffice Burglary.

There were two United States deputy marshals—A. E. Benlow and A. B. Briceson—in Decatur yesterday. They came here to arrest Melvin S. Burt, an Conkling and Charles Craig, who have been indicted in the U. S. district court at Springfield for burglarizing and robbing the postoffice at Elgin in this county on the night of December 13. The marshals were tired out with overwork, and leaving the matter of arrest in the hands of Sheriff Maury, they spent the afternoon and part of the evening in regaining lost sleep at the St. Nicholas.

The warrants were served by Constable Dillman, who with ex-Sheriff Foster drove to Elwin and captured two of the young men, the other being found by the sheriff in Decatur. This morning all three were taken to Springfield by the deputy marshals.
The parties were also indicted by the Macon county grand jury for the crime, and were out on bail. It will probably go hard with them in the district court, as we understand there is no denial of the crime. The store was broken into in the night while Postmaster T. J. Odor was absent at a religious meeting. About $20 in cash was taken. The prisoners are well connected and were not driven to the commission of the crime through poverty, as they usually had all the money they wanted.

Mr. Brown W. Hill says he was in Missouri in 1836, and remembers quite well the sudden freeze-up of that year. He said his brother were out in the lot taking care of stock when the dark cloud came rushing toward them. In a few moments the temperature dropped from 40 above to below zero, forming a sheet of ice in every direction and causing all stock exposed to perish. Mr. Hill will never forget that day, nor the time he and his brother made in getting to the house.

Fine Sleighing.

For fine sleighing drive out to the East Park Boulevards. The avenues are smooth and driving elegant.

Mrs. Snowdon's Friday and Saturday dancing classes are about to begin a new term, which will be one of eight instead of twelve lessons, with a corresponding reduction in price. Beginners should apply at the class room in the Gallagher building on Saturday afternoon. Private lessons in round dances $4 for twelve lessons.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Dayton Dunham is seriously ill at her home west of the city.

E. T. Lee has moved from Cerro Gordo to Monticello.

Mrs. Richard Nowell, of Clinton, was in the city to-day.

Judge Smith will go to Champaign today, returning next week.

Charley Maples is again with A. T.
Grist, the barber.

Mrs. Benj. Samuels, of Mansfield, La., daughter of the late Martin Holman, is visiting friends in this section.

Samuel B. Shannon, of Heyworth, Ill., and Miss Mary Deuch, of Wapella, Ill., were granted a marriage license to-day.

Robert Smith and sister, Miss Fannie, who have been the guests of R. Faries and family, have returned to their home in Chicago.

says he has given up a lot of water for the summer parties at the Springfield stock farm in Long Creek township.

Mrs. F. M. Young departed for Bloomington last evening, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Capen, who has been visiting in the city for a number of days.

H. M. Bragg, who was seriously injured in a friendly scuffle at Blue Mound recently, is able to be out again. He uses a cane and walks about with extreme care.

Mr. and Mrs. Conley Lukens, accompanied by their son, Justus Lukens, departed this week for California, going by way of New Orleans. They will stay at Los Angeles. Justus is in bad health.

Frank Jennings has returned from Bentonville, Ark., where on Sunday last the mercury was down to five degrees below zero, the coldest weather ever known in that section.

Ben Weaver, of Danville, official stenographer for Vermilion and Champaign counties, is doing similar work in our court during the absence of Alzeron Gunnville, who has been called to Columbus, Ohio.

The Stage.

There should be a large audience at the open house Saturday night to greet the famed Madison Square Company that is to present the beautiful drama and love story, "May Blossom," a companion piece for "Hazel, Kirke and Emerald."

Mr. Joe Adelman, who takes the part of the village preacher will be supported by Miss Verna, Miss Boyd, Miss Haines, Mr. Frawley, Mr. Burnett and other talented people. May Blossom is a play of five acts. Popular prices.

Charley Challis Married.

John W. Cingston got home to-day from Mason City, Ill., where last night he attended the marriage of his former chum, C. W. Challis, who at one time was in business at Decatur in postoffice block.
The following account of the wedding appeared in the Bloomington Pantagraph of to-day:

On last evening, at 5 o'clock, at Mason City, occurred the marriage of Mr. Chas.
Challis, of this city, and Miss Flora Earl.
The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the Presbyterian church, in the presence of a large number of friends, including guests from Alton, Decatur, Lincoln, Chicago, Lafayette and Bloomington. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's father. In a bay window a mirror had been placed, and on either side were curtains, and the whole was tastefully decorated with flowers. In front of the mirror the happy couple stood and were made one.

Following congratulations, an elegant supper was served under the direction of Mrs. Kate Phelps Cooper, of this city.
Many gifts were received, including sums of money and drafts from distant friends.
There were also many useful and ornamental presents. Mr. and Mrs. Challis came to this city on the Alton at 9 o'clock last evening, and left at 9:30 on the I. B.
& W. for Indianapolis. They will be absent about ten days, and upon their return will room at Mr. and Mrs. Brown's in the Livingston district. Those present from this city were Miss Kitty Holmes, John Walker and wife, James Challis and wife, George Challis, B. D. Lucas and L.
E. Haines.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. J. F.
Earl, a retired merchant of Mason City, and formerly resided in this city. She was dressed in a neat traveling suit, and made a most favorable impression on the strangers present. She is a very pleasant lady, and will be a valuable addition to the circle of her husband's friends in this city. Mr. Challis came here from Decatur about five years ago to become interested with his brother, James T., in the boot and shoe business on North Main street. He is a gentleman who has made many friends since coming here.
He is upright, respected and possessed of an excellent disposition. For himself and bride a long life and happy future will be wished by all who know them.

Heavy Fines.

There was a round-up of poker players in the county court yesterday, Judge Nelson fining John Gilbert $480; Jude Blackburn $460; John Friend $400; Lee Falconer $400; Ed Hershey $400—making a total of $2,140 and costs. As the amounts were too steep for the parties all went to jail.
